

BRIDGEHAMPTON CIRCUIT CLUB

- 1966

Southampton's man in the white coat has taken over the food and drink concession at the Circuit Club! Club devotees will be delighted to learn that Herb McCarthy is moving a branch of his internationally renowned Bowden Square Restaurant to the track. Acclaimed as one of America's best Bistros, Herb will practice his magic with food and drink for Circuit Club members starting May 21. Circuit Club dues are but $5.00 per weekend or $20.00 for the season - AND for those signing up in advance, a special club parking lot sticker that gets you onto an express traffic lane direct to the reserved parking area next to the club.

There's never been a more comfortable or a better vantage point from which to watch a race than the Circuit Club Terrace overlooking the pits and start-finish line.

Memberships are limited so get your check in now. $5.00 per event - $20.00 for complete season, Club membership does not include admission.
